

59
38

the contrary notwithstanding / I have ordered that the Act nor any thing therein contained shall be taken and deemed to extend to any Merchant, Factor or Agent bringing Negroes Slaves to the Isles or Plantations of any of our Colonies but in all respects their Executors Administrators may hold possess and enjoy such Slave or Negroes in full and lawful possession as they might have done before the making of the Act but the Sale of such Slave or Slaves shall be void in the Islands given under my hand and Seal the 29 April 1668. /

Wm Willoughby